

DIY PET FIRST AID KIT

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Pet(s) Name(s): _____

Species: _____ Birthday [estimate]: _____

Known Medical Issues: _____

Allergies: _____

Medications: _____

Pet's Veterinary Hospital: _____

Veterinarian: _____ Phone: _____

Address: _____

Hours: _____ Email: _____

Local animal emergency hospital: _____

Phone: _____

Address: _____

Hours: _____

Poison Control: _____

Phone: _____

*Note: Some poison control numbers do charge for their services.

Animal Control: _____ Non-emergency police: _____

Phone: _____ Phone: _____

Notes: _____

DIY PET FIRST AID KIT

CHECKLIST

- Canine/Feline First Aid Manual
- Important phone numbers and addresses
- Copy of the pet's medical records
- Digital thermometer
- Muzzle to prevent bites
- Scissors with blunt ends
- Disposable gloves (for you)
- Small flashlight
- Clean towels
- Gauze roll
- Cotton balls/swabs
- Tick removal tool
- Self-adhering non-stick tape
- Adhesive tape for bandages
- Nonstick bandages
- Strips of clean cloth
- Tweezers
- Eye dropper
- Large syringe without the needle
- Spare leash and collar
- Saline solution
- Alcohol wipes
- Styptic powder
- Collapsible water bowl

Average Dog & Cat Body Temperature: 101.0 to 102.5°F (38.3 to 39.2°C)

Concerning Temperatures: below 99°F (37.2°C) or above 104°F (40.0°C)

Common Toxins/Poisons

- Anti-Freeze
- Caffeine
- Chocolate
- Cooked Bird Bones
- Hops
- Garlic
- Grapes/Raisins
- Lilies
- Onions
- Xylitol (Sugar Substitute)
- Yeast Dough

ASPCA Animal Poison Hotline

(888) 426-4435

Animals of the Pacific Northwest